Subscribers who do not receive the GAZETTE promptly will confer a favor by letting this office know at the earliest possible moment. All papers are carefully done up in wrappers, plainly marked, and mailed regularly.

THE DAILY GAZETTE and WEEKLY GAZETTE and STOCKMAN hereby notify all delinquent subscribers that if they do not pay up by the 15th of January that their paper will be discontinued.

FROM the annual report of Governor A. P. Swineford of Alaska to the Secretary of the Interior we learn that the white population has greatly increased during the past year. In regard to the settlement of the public lands he states that all settlers in Alaska upon public lands are mere squatters, who are awaiting legislation from Congress which will enable them to secure titles. The only obstacle in the way of agriculture is that the lands are not available for settlement. He says that the climate is favorable and the soil rich. Other gold mines are being developed on Douglas Island, and the report notes the sale of four claims for $1,500,000. Promising silver discoveries have been made. The Governor thinks there is enough coal in the Territory to supply the whole of the United States for centuries.

"A TAX-PAYER" speaks a piece in to-day's GAZETTE that is full of good advice, which our country fathers would do well to heed. What is the use of making sanitary laws unless they are lived up to. Every property owner on the line of the present system of sewerage should, unless he has already done so, be forced to connect with the sewers, and that immediately.

The present session of Congress will be the last for at least two years in which an independent or side-show party member will disport himself in the House of Representatives. The Greenbackers have been finally eliminated, and every man in the next Congress will be a Republican or a Democrat.

UTAH has this season shipped over one hundred carloads of alfalfa seed to the East; enough to seed the whole of Delaware or Rhode Island.

Not Likely to Accept.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Senator Hale is quoted in a morning paper as saying that he expected to receive, within the next twenty-four hours, a telegram informing him of the fact that General Harrison had asked Blaine to accept a place in his Cabinet. "This," he said to an Associated Press reporter this afternoon, is incorrect. What I said, was that I should not be surprised to hear that such is the case. I believe Harrison will tender Blaine a place in his Cabinet; that of Secretary of State, for he is not considered on any other line of work.

Thinks it a Mistake.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Erasmus Wiman, in commenting on Butterworth's annexation scheme, said: "I never saw such a fatal mistake, and I cannot conceive how Butterworth came to do it. The idea I have is that there never was so contented a people as the Canadians." Wiman added that the immediate effect would be to render a commercial union more difficult, and that it was a political move on behalf of the Republicans who hurried in to get ahead of the Democrats who were contemplating the same thing.

Wants to Sell the Road.

LEWIS, Neb., Dec. 14.—The Attorney-General of this State has written the Governor protesting against the proposed action of Congress to extend the time of the payment of the Union Pacific debt. He says the company should be amenable to the State for lands taken, by condemnation or otherwise, outside of the Government grant. He says the only fair thing to do is to sell the road for cash.

Canadian Politics.

TORONTO, Dec. 14.—Commenting on the Butterworth resolution, the Empire, the leading Government organ, calls it an insulting overture. The Globe (opposition) says: We have no doubt that the judgment of the Canadians in this matter would be such as to cure our neighbors of a delusion that has long kept them from trying to make the most possible out of the political separation of the two countries.

Fatal Accident.

PARIS, Dec. 14.—Two men were killed and many injured by the breaking of a capstan on a torpedo boat at Toulon.

BLAINE DECLINES TO TALK.

Lively Congressional Tilt on the Nicaragua Canal Bill.

JUDGE HANNAN DISGUSTED

Another Heavy Gale on the Atlantic Coast.

What Congress is Doing.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Hooker of Mississippi introduced a concurrent resolution, providing for a holiday recess from Friday, December 21st, until Monday, January 7th. Referred to the Ways and Means Committee.

Clardy of Missouri moved that the House go into Committee of the Whole on the private calendar for the further consideration of the Nicaragua Canal bill.

A lively discussion arose in the House this afternoon, based on an article in a New York paper declaring there were two elements united against the Nicaragua Canal bill—the agents of the Pacific railroads and the attorneys of the Panama canal—and containing an interview with Judge Daly on the subject, intimating that the gentlemen (meaning them) who offered the amendments to the bill did so for the purpose of defeating the measure. Wilson, Leland of Missouri, Cobb of Alabama and Spaulding of New York indignantly denied being influenced in their action in offering the amendments by any purpose, except a desire to perfect the measure. The latter referred to Judge Daly as a man who, since his retirement from the bench, had been connected with breezy enterprises.

Cox of New York paid a warm eulogy to Judge Daly's integrity, and in an emphatic manner denied the charge that he was a lobbyist.

The Committee on Military Affairs agreed to report favorably the bill for the retirement of W. S. Rosecrans, with the rank of Brigadier-General.

Stanley Heard From.

CAIRO, Dec. 14.—In a letter received at Suakim from Osman Digna, supposed to have contained the announcement that Emin Pasha and a white traveler, presumably Stanley, had fallen into the hands of the Mahdi. There were enclosed copies of a dispatch from the Derwish leader at Lado to Khalifa Pasha, giving the date of Emin Pasha's surrender as being on October 10th, and a letter to Emin Pasha from the Khedive, which the latter handed to Henry M. Stanley when at Cairo.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—It is rumored that Osman Digna, in his letter, expressed a willingness to surrender Emin Pasha and his white companion, provided Egypt would agree to abandon Suakim. If this proposal is not accepted, it is believed that both the captives will be killed. The British Cabinet is now discussing the situation.

A Labor Organization.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 14.—The first work of the American Federation of Labor was the reception of the report of the Committee on Boycott and Labor. The committee recommended that the several boycotts use union labels. The report of the Committee on Constitution was considered seriatim. During the debate, reflections were cast upon the Knights of Labor, and the assertion was made that that order is rapidly disintegrating.

Dashed to Death.

STEVENSBURG, Wis., Dec. 14.—This morning ten men at work on a scaffold on a stand pipe, ninety feet from the ground, one side gave way, throwing five of them to the stone bottom, killing Charles Myers, Harry Sills, A. Albus and Jack Ainsworth, and badly hurting John Smith.

Declines to Talk.

AUGUSTA, Me., Dec. 14.—Blaine declines to talk about the story of having been offered the Secretaryship of State. Joseph Manley does not believe Harrison has tendered the position to Blaine, although he always believed it would be tendered and that Blaine would accept.

Found Dead in Bed.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 14.—David A. Stewart, Chairman and Treasurer of Carnegie, Phypps & Co., and President of the Pittsburgh Locomotive Works, was found dead in bed this morning. He was in apparent good health when he retired.

Dangerously High Wind.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—The wind is blowing fifty miles per hour, and the temperature is 6° above zero. No steamers have gone to sea, and only one has arrived.

The Drought Ended.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—A dispatch from Sydney now reports copious rains in the colonies of Victoria and New South Wales.

The Parsell Commission.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—At the sitting of the Parsell Commission to-day, counsel for the Times requested the court to sit on Tuesday, in order that he might make application as to what course the court would pursue respecting William O'Brien for an article in his paper, the United Ireland, in which it was stated the time has arrived for plain speaking in regard to the forgeries commission. "We do not intend to wait until it allows us to speak; we do not care two pence for the opinion of the three judges, especially selected in the teeth of a justly indignant Liberal protest, by the forgers friends and accomplices." Justice Hannan indicated that the court had arranged to adjourn to-day, and he added that if he could he would instantly relinquish his seat on the Commission, but he had a duty which it was impossible to evade. Counsel for the Times called attention to the observations made by the warden of Merton College, which he likened Michael Davitt and other Home Rulers, to the White-chapel murderer. The judges retired for consultation and when they returned Justice Hannan announced that they had decided that an affidavit reciting the utterances of O'Brien and his paper be immediately filed, and that O'Brien must appear before the Commission to-morrow. They also decided that a notice be served upon the Warden of Merton College, ordering him to attend at the first meeting in January.

Thomas O'Connor, who testified on the 4th inst. about the alleged inner workings of the League, was recalled. On being cross-examined he admitted that an emissary of the Times had strongly urged him to testify. He admitted the authorship of a letter to his brother, saying he got himself summoned by the Times in order to make a few pounds, but found he had to swear to queer things. This family had since telegraphed him that they would die of shame if he changed his testimony on cross-examination.

In the House of Commons this afternoon, Smith, the Government leader, said so far as known, the letter written by Osman Digna announcing the surrender of Emin Pasha and a white traveler, but the Government had no means of knowing whether these allegations are true.

Defiant Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—The Anarchists declare that they will hold a meeting in Lakeview to-night in spite of the order of the Mayor forbidding it. They have hired an attorney to make a test case, by asking for an injunction restraining the Mayor from interfering. It is reported that they have decided to give up the Arbeiter Bund organization, which the police of this city declare will not be allowed to meet, and to form what professes to be a sort of a religious body under the name of the Rechtsschutz.

A Southern Pacific Decision.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—The Supreme Court has declared that the county of San Benito has no power to make the Southern Pacific railroad take out and pay for a license to continue its business of carrying freight and passengers in that county and the decision of the lower court is reversed. The Supreme Court holds the power granted a person or corporation by the United States cannot be subjected to taxation by a State or county.

To be Given More Time.

PARIS, Dec. 14.—An official notice was posted on the Bourse this morning to the effect that the Government will introduce a bill providing for the postponement for three months of the payment of the Panama Canal Company's liabilities, including interest and the redemption of bonds.

"EXTRA STAR" KEROSENE!

Best and Safest Oil Manufactured.

Strictly Water White. Guaranteed 130° fire test.

TOO MUCH CARE CANNOT BE TAKEN

when purchasing Coal Oil, to obtain an article that will be perfectly safe and of good burning quality. The fact is now generally recognized that our "STAR" and "EXTRA STAR" Oils are the safest and best illuminating oils ever offered, being superior in fire test and burning quality to all others. These oils are remarkably uniform, which is a decided advantage to the consumer. They will cost no more than inferior brands that are being put on the market branded "High Fire Test," but which are really only 105° to 115°, rendering them very unsafe oils for family use. We guarantee the "EXTRA STAR" better in every respect than the "Star," and at higher prices. We have had great difficulty in obtaining a sufficient supply to meet the large and increasing demand for our brands. A full supply, however, has just arrived, and we are now in condition to fill orders promptly.

Give these oils a trial and you will use no others. We quote "Star" Oil at 22c per gal., lots to suit. "Extra Star" at 23c per gal., lots to suit.

JOTTINGS.

Cloaks at Emrich's.
 Great reduction in ladies' and children's cloaks at Emrich's.
 Everybody should call at I. Fredrick's jewelry store to select their holiday presents.
 Don't let the next storm catch you without a few cards of J. F. Aitken's dry firewood.
 At George Becker's Granite saloon can always be had as fine a quality of beer, wines, cigars and liquors as can be found in town.
 Mrs. J. Graff has a full assortment of Christmas toys, fresh candies, nuts, oranges, lemons and dates, which she will sell cheap for cash.
 Ladies have commenced to find out that it pays them to cross the street when they can get such nice goods as Mr. Northrop keeps.
 It don't require a whole day to cook the quality of meats to be had at J. Frazer's Virginia street market, and you always find his cutters and shop as clean as silk.
 J. J. Becker has no fish to be fried by the Legislature, but he sets out the finest noon lunch to be found in town, and besides, he keeps both Boca and Sacramento beer.
 I make a specialty of brown coffee, chickens, turkeys, self-rising buckwheat flour, cider, oranges and all kinds of shelf goods.
 C. E. LEADRETER.
 C. A. Thurston's display of Christmas goods has never been excelled in Reno. His goods are all first-class and his prices reasonable. He invites an examination.
 It is worth a quarter to see C. J. Brooks' stock of bucking donkeys, and running rabbits and pigs. Examine his stock and see how cheaply you can make the little ones happy.
 Mrs. J. Graff has received a complete and carefully selected stock of holiday goods, which she will sell at living rates. Call and see her before going elsewhere. Also fresh bread, pies and cakes.
 A. E. Mellish, scientific optician, is in the city taking orders for spectacles and eyeglasses. He makes a specialty of special glasses for difficult and complicated cases; prepares and adjusts only the very best grades of pebble, crown, flint and crystal lenses. All work guaranteed. Call or address Golden Eagle Hotel.

Reducing the Surplus.

The disposition of the surplus in the U. S. Treasury engages the attention of our Statesmen, but a more vital question has our attention, and that is the reduction of the Surplus Consumptives. Since the discovery and introduction of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, there has been a marked decrease in the mortality from this dreaded disease, and it is possible to still further reduce the number of consumptives. How? By keeping constantly at hand a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and using according to directions, upon the appearance of the first symptoms, such as a cough, a cold, a sore throat, a chest or side pain. Take these early cures as guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Hodgkinson's drug store.

DEATH OF MRS. EVANS.

One of the Earliest Pioneers Ends a Useful Life.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. Orlando Evans breathed her last, after seven weeks of suffering. Mrs. Evans was one of the few pioneers who pitched their tents in the sagebrush State in the early times. She crossed the plains in 1856, when but 16 years old, and settled with her parents in Carson Valley, where she lived until 1859, when she was married to W. T. C. Elliott and removed to Honey Lake Valley, where she resided until 1868, when she removed to Reno. In 1878 she was divorced from her former husband (Elliott) and subsequently married General Orlando Evans. She had been the mother of eight children, two of whom are living, aged respectively 14 and 16. Mrs. Evans was a pioneer in her true sense, and a woman who had seen the rough side of life as presented in early days. She was a woman greatly beloved by all who knew her, and the GAZETTE deeply sympathizes with her husband and two daughters in this, their dark hour. The funeral will take place from the Congregational Church at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

A LONELY DEATH.

An Aged Lady Passes to the Unseen Beyond.

Mrs. Mercey, an aged French woman, was found dead in bed in her cabin on Mill street this morning. It seems she had been suffering from lung fever, but was up and about every day and only a week ago moved to her present quarters on Mill street. Mrs. Wallace, one of her neighbors, took her supper in to her last night about 9 o'clock, and the old lady seemed cheerful and ate her supper with a good relish. Mrs. Wallace left her sitting by the side of the bed. This morning she prepared a breakfast for her and knocked at the door of the lady's cabin, but receiving no answer she pushed the door open and found that Mrs. Mercey had blown out the light and retired, and apparently had passed away without a struggle. Coroner Brown took charge of the remains, and will hold an inquest. The only relative the old lady has is a son, John Mercey, 18 years of age, but his present whereabouts is unknown. He was acting as cook at Essex the last the old lady knew of him.

How Whitechapel Looks.

James Yerington, who recently visited London, relates the following to the Carson Appeal: "I visited the place at night, and all my experience in life has never presented anything so terrible. In my walk of a few hours I must have seen at least five hundred women lying beastly drunk on the sidewalks and doorsteps. It looked as if hell had been cleared of all its contents to dump them in the streets of Whitechapel. The section is threaded by a labyrinth of crooked streets and alleys, and every place has a dozen ways of exit."

Meat Market.

Following are the rates for whole carcasses from slaughterers to dealers in the San Francisco market:
 Beef—First quality, 7@8c; second quality, 6@7c; third quality, 5@6c per pound.
 Veal—Quotable at 6@7c for large and 8@10c per pound for small.
 Mutton—Quotable at 6@7c per pound.
 Lamb—Quotable at 8@9@9c per pound.
 Pork—Live hogs, on foot, grain fed, 6@6½c; soft, 5½@6c; dressed hogs, 8½@9c per pound.

Spring City Mines.

The Winnemucca Silver State says that W. B. Todhunter, who has just returned from a trip to Spring City, says he was informed while there that the Paradise Valley and Cliff mines at that place are looking unusually well. They have, he was told, a fine body of ore in the Wild Goose mine, and he saw wagon loads of it which seemed to be rich. They have also good ore in the 70-foot and 110-foot levels of the Cliff mine, and the general impression of the miners is that there are large bodies of it.

Favors Woman Suffrage.

The Elko Independent says it can see no good reason why women who desire it should not have the right of suffrage. They, as well as men, are interested in good government; they pay taxes; they have a deep interest in education; they, as a rule, are far more competent to cast an intelligent vote than thousands of men who are permitted to vote simply because they are men.

Gubernatorial Appointments.

Governor Steven on yesterday appointed and commissioned J. O. Birmingham and R. McFadden members of the District Board of Agriculture, No. 5, Lyon county, for four years from the 1st inst.; also J. W. Brumagin a Commissioner of Deeds, to reside in San Francisco.

Firemen's Meeting.

A special meeting of Monumental Engine Company, No. 2, will be held at the engine house this evening at 8:30. Those who have not been attending the meetings of late will be dropped from the roll unless they appear to-night. L. L. JAMISON, Foreman.

Stock Shipments.

Twenty-two cars of beef cattle loaded at Carlin, consigned to Schoenfeldt & Co., San Francisco, and thirteen cars loaded at Wells by L. Brooks, consigned to Hayes & Co., Oakland, were unloaded here yesterday and reshipped this morning.

Fire Meeting.

At the special meeting of the two fire companies last evening John Frazer was elected Chief Engineer (vice H. J. Thyer, resigned), and George Hyman was chosen as Assistant Chief.

Died of His Wounds.

W. H. Rexford, the man who cut his throat yesterday, died at the County Hospital this afternoon.

BREVITIES.

Local and General Intelligence.

Reno supports a dozen drays. Judge Young sent up a drunk yesterday for fifteen days.
 There are 3,800 head of beef cattle being fed at Lovelocks this winter.
 There are said to be several inches of ice on the several ponds of the upper Truckee.
 The North Star Con. mine in Hawthorne district is said to have a vein of $500 ore.

Ice men up the Truckee say there will be no harvesting done before Christmas.
 Six bars of Con. Virginia bullion were sent below last evening per Wells-Fargo.

The vestibule train passed West on time this morning with about 25 through passengers.
 The next term of fifteen weeks at the State University will open on January 2, 1889. See ad.

The Chinese laundrymen of Carson, are said to have reduced their rates for family washing.
 Some Tuscarora ore, belonging to George Smith, is being crushed at the Reno Reduction Works.

AN UNDERTAKER BILKED.

How a Chinaman Fooled Undertaker Sanders and Coroner Brown.

In the murky month of June last, Coroner Brown and undertaker Sanders got notice that there was a dead Chinaman at Dan Wheeler's ranch. Sanders hitched up his black horse in his black wagon, loaded his dead box in, and he and Brown drove hurriedly to the ranch. Finding the defunct mongolian they loaded him into the "dead box" and wagon and drove back to town, arriving here about noon. The undertaker, feeling like he had earned his dinner proposed to have it, and run the casket up to the ceiling to keep him away from cats and rats, by a contrivance that he has in his shop for that purpose, and went to dinner. Imagine his surprise when he came back to find that the Chinaman had kicked the cover off the box and was just climbing down from his nook with the exclamation "What the matter—you think me dead? What for, God dam!"
 It seems the Chinaman had taken an overdose of opium and was, to all appearance dead, but his ride to town had awakened him from his slumber, and he had strength enough left to kick the cover off the box and get out.

A Railroad Center.

"A TAX-PAYER'S" ADVICE.

Some Suggestions from a Citizen of Reno.

The reputation of the sanitary condition of a town has much to do with its prosperity. No other place in the State has expended, within the last few years, as much money for drainage purposes as Reno. The principal portion of the town has a most excellent system of sewerage, which has cost between fifteen and twenty thousand dollars. This system is and will be of little avail as a health measure until it is utilized; until the property holders adjacent to the main lines and branches are required to connect therewith. About two years ago the expensive work of sewerage was commenced, and now along the alleys where the first pipes were laid, disease-breeding stench is too common and the malarial effects of them are observable. Last summer an ordinance was passed requiring all property owners to make the much-needed connections with these highways for filth. This ordinance practically has been a dead letter. Somebody is to blame for it. The fruits of the non-enforcement are being reaped in the shape of disease, doctor bills and deaths.

Some are saying wait till spring for action, let us have the winter to fill up our vaults, to impregnate the ground with embryotic disease by letting it drink up our slops and filth; let us lay the foundation for epidemics next summer and fall, then enforce the edicts, all of which they are doing by non-action. To all such, those in authority, those who have expended the people's thousands to protect their health, should give the emphatic no, and with that strength of character which becomes public servants, with an iron will which has the good of all at heart, demand immediate action on the part of all, so that the surface of the town when spring time comes shall be clean and sweet.

Dr. Bo-san-ko.

In his new discovery, Dr. Bo-san-ko, succeeded in producing a medicine which is acknowledged by all to be simply marvellous. It is exceedingly pleasant to the taste, perfectly harmless, and does not sicken. In all cases of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, and Pains in the Chest, it has given universal satisfaction. Dr. Bo-san-ko's Lung Syrup is sold at 50 cents by S. J. Hodgkinson.

Mrs. Catherine Lepesh, widow of John Lepesh, who died last February from the effect of vaccination, committed suicide at San Jose, Cal., last Wednesday.

If your back aches or if you are suffering from inflammation of the kidneys, seminal weakness, brick dust, deposit in the urine, or in fact any kidney, urinary or liver complaint do not waste any money on worthless liniments or plasters, but strike the root of the disease at once by using the greatest of all known remedies, Oregon Kidney Tea. It is pleasant to take, is purely vegetable, and has never failed to give entire satisfaction. Sold by Wm. Finniger.

Andrew P. Stanley, who was raised in the Mission of San Francisco committed suicide at Bakersfield Wednesday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 2.—For several weeks my wife suffered severely with kidney trouble, a very aggravated character, which seemed to defy all the usual remedies. I finally tried the Oregon Kidney Tea. The effect was an immediate improvement, and she has now entirely recovered her health.

"The Great Monthly Magazine of the World."—Pacific Churchman.

THE CENTURY
MAGAZINE IN 1889.

WHY Has it such an enormous circulation?
Experts estimate that between two and three millions of people read each number.

BECAUSE The CENTURY is above every other thing a leader. It is the development of wood-engraving in America, and it has fostered American artists. It is alive to the issues of to-day. What it prints sets people to thinking and talking.

BECAUSE Whatever other periodicals
may come into the family,
the great reading world has found out that
"no household can keep abreast of the times without THE CENTURY." Its success is explained by its contents.

BECAUSE The greatest writers of the world like to have their work
read by the greatest number, and therefore to such a magazine as THE CENTURY the best naturally comes. It was for THE CENTURY that General Grant first wrote his reminis-cences of important battles.

BECAUSE It is publishing the life of his private secretaries. Of this it has been said,
"The young man who is not reading it robs himself of that which he will hunger for."
The coming year presents the most important part of this great history, which may begin at any time.

BECAUSE It is printing those remarkable able articles on "Siberia and the trade system" by George Kennan, which are attracting universal attention and are being reprinted in hundreds of foreign newspapers, but are not allowed to enter America.
The "Chicago Tribune" says that "no other magazine articles printed in the English language just now touch upon the subject so vitally interests all thoughtful people in Europe and America and Asia." They are "as judicious as the opinion of a Supreme Court tribunal—as thrilling as the most sensational drama."

BECAUSE During 1889, THE CENTURY
has to have a series of engravings of the greatest pictures of the Italian masters, made by Timothy Cole, the leading wood-engraver in the world, who has spent four years in Italy on this work; a series of "Strange True Stories of Louisiana," by Geo.
W. Cable; occasional richly illustrated papers describing the scenes of the current international Sunday-school lessons; interesting illustrated papers on Ireland, and a series of humorous and pathetic Irish-American stories,
a striking illustrated novelette, "The Romance of Holland," by a new writer, and other novelettes to be announced later; supplemental war
papers, technical and descriptive of special incidents; "Pictures of the Far West," by Mary Halleck Foote, etc., etc. We have not space here to announce all the new features.
Let us send you (free) our "Catalogue of Special Publications," with original illustrations, containing full prospectus, special order of back numbers to the beginning of the subscription papers, etc. The November number, which begins the new volume, is for sale everywhere
after November 1st. THE CENTURY costs 35 cents a number; $4.00 a year. Address THE CENTURY CO., 33 East 17th Street, New York.

A WONDERFUL REMEDY.

The value of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
in the protection it affords from the dangers of pulmonary disorders, cannot be overestimated. Mr. C. K. Phillips, Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "About three years ago I had severe Laryngitis, which resulted in chronic hoarseness. By the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral I have since entirely regained my health." Mr. Henry Russell, Excelsior, Printing Co., New York,
writes: "Influenza became epidemic in my neighborhood. Several members of my family suffered severely with it,
all of whom took Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
and were cured by it in a few days. It is a wonderful medicine for Influenza.
Too much cannot be said in its favor."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

has cured a Cough in a few doses. It always relieves irritation of the lungs or throat, and arrests the tendency to inflammation. It strikes at the foundation of all Pulmonary diseases, is without a rival as an expectorant, and is a sure cure for the most obstinate Coughs and Colds. L. Garrett, Texana, Texas, writes: "I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for twenty years. For throat and lung diseases, I consider it a wonderful remedy."

HEALTHY EMPLOYMENT GIVEN TO GIRLS— Prices of Wigs—White Hair Very Costly.

"One of the few markets for a woman's work which is not overcrowded and at which competent and fairly intelligent girls can earn good wages from the first day they enter upon the profession is that which includes the working, cutting and general arrangement of the human hair," said one of the leading tonsorial artists to a reporter.

"At present the hair trade, like other businesses, is very dull. Wearing short hair has a great deal to do with the depression, but now it is going out of fashion, thank goodness!
It used to take six or eight people cutting hair all day to earn $10.

The average wages for female hair-dressers is $8 a week, rising to $18 and sinking to $5. A girl who understands the whole business thoroughly in all its branches can command $18 anywhere. One large artist in this city used to employ 140 girls, and paid $700 weekly in wages."

"Where do the profits of the profession lie?"

"In the false hair department." We sell on the average three wigs a day even during dull times. The ladies who have had their hair cut and are tired of it, buy wigs and switches to wear in the street. Those whose hair is poor, or who suffer from baldness
wear them all the time.

"Girls who confine their attention to hair-working alone, earn from $8 to $10 a week. It is an art that needs some skill and no small amount of patience and perseverance to succeed with."

The hair, with which the wigs are made is collected by special drapers in Germany and France. England and Belgium are but poor markets for hair,
not because of its scarcity, for both English and Belgian women have the finest heads of hair in the world, but because they will not sell it.

"When collected it is put through a cleaning process severe enough to fetch the dirt out of an elephant's hide, and then dyed several times over. The best hair-dressers never buy hair from the head or from private hands."

"What is the rarest kind of hair?"

"Perfectly white hair; it will command almost any price. Natural curling hair is also of considerable value.
A good wig of white hair costs $40.
The material of which these wigs are made is clipped from the festive goat, and seldom from the human head. A peculiarly soft, silky kind of snow-white hair originates on the Angora rabbit."

"A perfectly white and abundant wig of white human hair would cost at least $1,000, which price few ladies
would be willing to pay."

"Dead hair—that is hair cut from the head after death—is never used by any tonsorial artist worthy of the name.
Indeed, it cannot be used to any advantage, as it will neither curl, twist,
nor manipulate."

"Hair cut from a living head is not dead, a fact which can easily be proved by taking hair and stretching it out to its utmost capacity. It will then contract quietly to its former position."
—[N. Y. Mail and Express.]

Society Expenses in New York.

"How much does it cost to keep in the swim of society here in New York?"
"Well," said the young man of whom I asked the question, "that depends.
The men, and especially the young ones, can keep in on very little, for the burden of entertaining falls on the unfortunate with a household
and a couple of pretty daughters."

"The first requisite for a young man is membership in a club. If he wants to go further, he can have a room at the Brunswick, or bachelor apartments elsewhere. In that case it costs considerable for entertaining his set, who drop in and out at all hours.
But with the exception of being now and then that is as far as he need go. In fact the expense can be kept down to cab hire and bouquets,
if necessary."

"The married man with a daughter
or two has to have an open purse, though. Each girl needs five ball and reception dresses a year, at $200 apiece.
His wife will have to give at least one ball out of that at less than $2,000. His wife's dresses cost never less than one thousand, while carriages, flowers and suppers will eat up of what is left of $5,000."

"I am speaking now of those people who are forced to keep their expenses down. Those in what is called the 'leading set' here spend all the way from $25,000 to $75,000. I don't suppose Mrs. Astor, Mrs. Lorillard or Mrs. Goeltz spend a penny less than $75,000 a year in society." —[Philadelphia Press.]

Young Monstrosities.

Two hairy children are being exhibited at a London aquarium, and are arousing scientific curiosity.
They are natives of Paraguay,
of light complexion, intelligent, and members of a family with skins as smooth as ordinary.

Their backs are completely covered with fine, dark-colored hair or fur,
short, soft, and unlike the black hair
of the head; in the boy the hairy covering extends down the thighs to the knees.

In addition to these large covered spaces, the bodies of both are covered with circular patches of fur, varying in size from that of a pea to a hand's breadth; as many as a hundred of these spots showing upon the girl.

Faith Illustrated.

A business man on the Hudson had his children down with the scarlet fever, and one of the little ones was put in quarantine apart from the rest. It was a mild type of fever, and the grandfather used to go upstairs and sit with the child.
The little girl one day took her grandfather to a corner of the room, and showed him some alphabet bricks arranged to spell out:

"I want you to get me a box of paints."
Next day he brought the paints from town, but left them in his overcoat pocket
when he went up to see his little girl.
She didn't say anything, but she took him
to the corner again, and he read:
"I thank you, grandpa, for the box of paints."
She had faith in him.—Dwight L.
Moody.

THE AMERICAN POTTERY DISTRICT.

Its Centre a City with a Large English Population.
Trenton is a very English town; the most English town in the country, except, perhaps, East Liverpool, Ohio. Including Chambersburg and Millham, adjoining it, and about to be included in it
by act of Legislature, it has a population of about 50,000, of whom 10,000 are English.

The Irish in Trenton are few compared with the English, and even the Germans are less numerous than the people who claim England as the birthplace of either themselves or their parents.

English immigrants began going to Trenton forty years ago, but it is only within the last five years that they have become so prominent a factor in the life of the city. They founded the pottery business there, and for many years all the pottery employees and most of the manufacturers themselves were of English birth.

Now, however, the increase in the business has been even greater than the English immigration, and the young sons and daughters of American-born parents are learning the trade, and working in the shops beside the sons and daughters of English-born parents, and beside the newer arrivals from England. But the proportion of English in the business is still at least five or six to one.

SCORING THE SPIRITUALISTS.

"The Foulest and Worst of all Impostions."

Of all impositions, of all frauds, of all gross deceptions, and villainous humbugs practiced in the world, those by Spiritualistic mediums are the foulest and worst.

The bunco-steerer, the confidence man,
the green-goods merchant and the monte sharp only rob their customers of money
by false pretense, while these swindlers,
playing upon the hopes and fears of weak
flesh, trifling with the grief of the widow and the stricken mother, and employing as their agent the agony of every anguished heart whose treasure is in the grave, not only extort money by vile trickery, but often drive their deluded victims from health and wealth into poverty and illness, and finally rob them of the reason and drive them to the madhouse.

This is not exaggeration, but simple fact.

Our wise legislators have provided means for the punishment of other swindlers, but these miscreants are allowed to practice under the protection of the law.
Again and again they have been exposed,
again and again the whole fabric of spiritualistic manifestation has been shown to be deception and trickery; homes have been ruined, fortunes lost, evils innumerable wrought in families upon which the curse of credulity has fallen, and still not one step taken towards the protection of the community from the gang of charlatans invading it.—New York World.

Lovers' Names.

If your lover's name is Harry,
"Won't be long before you marry."
If he's the man on whom you're gone,
You'll run no risk to trust in John.
If Richard is your sweetheart's name,
He'll likely bring you wealth and fame.
Should you wed a man named Charley,
Expect a temper sharp and snarly.
If one all patient you expect,
Joseph's the name you must select.
There is no other name can rank
For loving loyalty like Frank.
To homely bliss if you incline,
To some sweet William take a shine.
If you seek the fond and true,
Albert is the name for you.
Don't expect a steady head
If your fancy runs to Ned.
If unruined life you'd know,
Pick out faithful, honest Joe.

HE CHANGED THE SUBJECT.

As in Connubial Disputes Generally, the husband (looking up from his paper—
"What asses men can make of themselves!"
Wife—"What is the matter now, dear?"
H—"I am looking at the love letters in this breach of promise case."
W—"Are they interesting?"
H—"Interesting! They are absolutely sickening. Hear this: 'My dear ducky!'
My lovey dovey! Hat ha ha!"
W. (demurely)—"It does sound rather foolish, doesn't it?"
H. (with a burst of laughter)—"Foolish?
Idiotic you mean. It's the worst sort imaginable. To think that any man in his senses could write such stuff as this:
'I send you a million kisses my goods;
poor little sweetie! hat ha ha!' W.—"Perhaps he loved her when he wrote those letters."
H.—"Suppose he did. Is that any excuse for writing such rot!" W.—"Yes, it should be. Here are some letters I found to-day when looking over my old relics—relics of courtship. They are very foolish, but very precious to me.
I assure you, they are your own letters.
One of them begins: 'My ownest, own prelousnest little duckydarling, my—'
H. (hastily)—"By the way, my love, I saw a very handsome bonnet in the window of Mrs. Fussandfeather to-day. If you will come out with me to-morrow and take a look at it—well, if it suits you, you can have it."
W. (awestrily)—"Thank you, dearest.
Shall I read you this letter?" H.—"No. I have an engagement. Some other time I will hear it."

FIRST AMERICAN PERIODICAL.

It Was Edited by Benjamin Franklin
and Was Not a Success.

The first periodical of any importance
which appeared in America, and the earliest to be devoted chiefly to literature, was the famous old General Magazine and Historical Chronicle, established in 1741
at Philadelphia and edited by Benjamin Franklin.

Up to this time the few clumsily made
and crudely printed journals published were devoted almost exclusively to the discussion of the political situation of the day, at home and in the netherland.
Franklin, with his keen business sense
and love for letters, saw a new field opened to the periodical as a vehicle for the dissemination of the latest thought bearing upon belles lettres and the sciences, and he resolved to be the first to break the new ground. The Chronicle was suspended within a year of its birth.

Philosophy of the Kitchen.

Little Dot—"I don't like to help wipe dishes."
Omaha Mamma—"Why not, pet?"
"If I learn how to do such things just right, I'll grow up into a servant girl,
won't I?"
"No, dear. If you learn how to do anything just right, you'll never be a servant girl."—Omaha World.
